The Kirk of the Keys Presbyterian (ECO) Church in Marathon, FL is seeking a full-time (ordained) Assistant Pastor who is ready to share their heart for ministry in the heart of the Florida Keys! The Kirk of the Keys is a thriving intergenerational, multi-service church located about an hour south of Miami, and about an hour north of Key West. The Kirk of the Keys exists to “Create fully committed followers of Christ in our community.”

In order to be considered for this opportunity of a lifetime, qualified candidates must:

- Passionately seek to be a faithful follower of Jesus Christ in her/his own life.
- Have a field-related Masters Degree from an accredited institution.
- Have a heart for Christian education ministries in the church, especially a love and respect for children and youth! (i.e., You must love children and youth, and you must love being around them. Like A lot.)
- Have a personal and contagious faith that encourages others to become more involved in their faithful service to Christ in His church.

The triumvirate of awesome that will be your job description:

- Worship Leadership (Occasional Preaching, Teaching, Praying in worship services)
- Christian Education (praying, loving, leading, training, dreaming)
- Pastoral Care (helping to nurture the entire congregation, even brother Larry)
- *BONUS: the highly sought-after “other duties as assigned by head of staff”

Upon acceptance of this call, you will:

- Impact people of all ages who will never forget the love of Christ shown to them by you.
- Shepherd and coach the future Christian leaders of this world.

All those interested in applying (or for those interested in the full version of the job description) should please send your cover letter, resume and statement of faith to KirkoftheKeys@gmail.com, ATTN: Rev. Dustin Sedlak.
