

Director of Children’s Ministry – Elementary K-5th Grade
First Presbyterian Church, Winston-Salem, NC (full time)

Do you have a passion for children and their families? Do you have a desire to see children come to know Christ and be discipled in knowing, loving, and serving Him? Are you convinced that equipping parents and family is a core part of ministering to children? Are you a person who loves to build teams of people and equip them for ministry and service? Do you love working collaboratively on a team of professionals, and are you a servant-leader and a team player? Do you resonate with Reformed theology and feel comfortable in a Presbyterian context? Then we encourage you to apply for the open position on our church staff of Director of Elementary Children’s Ministry.

Interested qualified candidates should send the following to Amy Carlan: amyc@1stpres.com

- Cover Letter of interest
- Resume and References
