

Children's Ministry Director Lincoln Presbyterian Church Stockton, CA

Are you interested in working in beautiful Stockton, California? Lincoln Presbyterian Church is looking for a Children's Ministry Director/Pastor, and you might be just the person for the job! Read our vision statement, and if it strikes your fancy, keep reading!

Lincoln vision for children's ministry:

Lincoln's Children's Ministry Program will equip and empower children to defend their faith, discover their spiritual gifts, and develop compassion for others. Our vibrant Awanas mid-week program will help to create an environment oozing with excitement about God where children can't wait to bring their friends to know a saving relationship with Jesus Christ. Our strong discipleship and mentoring programs, while seamlessly transitioning children through all of our youth ministries, will grow our children into passionate Christian leaders who recognize injustice and never hesitate in serving others. Our Children's Ministry Program will supplement the faith based teaching in our children's homes, and will help all children who attend Lincoln to become fully devoted followers of Christ.

What do you think? Is that something you can get behind?

Some key personality traits we are looking for might include being a sold out follower of Jesus Christ, regular laughter coming from your office, you love having people around you, you are an encourager, you are self-motivated, and you'll do anything (short of sinning) to help kids come to a saving and growing relationship with Christ. We are not going to tell you how to do it, but there will be goals and vision that will guide you to building a great ministry.

If you want to throw your name into the hat for stage 1, first thing to do is pray! Then send along your resume and cover letter (addressed to Pastor Matt) to jobs@lincolnpres.org. Please only apply if you can legally work in the USA.
