

FPC Greenville is a growing congregation of 3100 members located in the heart of downtown. While we appreciate and embrace our 169 year history, we are also excited about the future and changes that God is bringing about in our congregation and the impact First Pres is having in our community. We have a strong youth program with a large number of Sr. High students active during the week.

See our website at www.firstpresgreenville.org.

We are looking for someone that can build on the existing program and also add their own influence. The person for this job should be very relational and caring with a good knowledge of the Bible and commitment to the essentials of the reformed faith. We need a fun loving, creative person that is willing to spend time with students and show that they are important and help them understand their need for a relationship with Jesus Christ. In addition, the candidate for this job should have at experience in a leadership position within a youth program and a demonstrated ability to lead and relate with 9th to 12th grade students in an exciting and captivating manner.

This is a full time job with responsibility for Sunday School, Wednesday night activities, retreats, mission trips, fun events throughout the year as well as working closely and coordinating with our Associate Pastor of Student Ministries and Female Student Ministries Coordinator. We also expect you to be a vital part of the overall ministry staff and to have input into the ministries of the church.

If you feel you are the person God is calling to this position, please email your resume to srhighsearch@firstpresgreenville.org. We will send a full job description along with our theology statement and a short questionnaire.
