

Expect the Unexpected: Partnering Today to Change Lives Tomorrow

Presented by:

Working together to inspire generosity

What will be happening in the life of your church tomorrow? Or even next year? No one can say for sure. Hopefully, you will have many opportunities to serve others and change the lives of those in your congregation, but you could also face unplanned trials and tribulations.

For example, one of our partners in Texas, Leon Springs Presbyterian Church (LSPC), just reached out to share with me how TPF has helped them. Recently, municipal water became available in Leon Springs, and whether the church wanted the system or not, regulations required that it be installed at the cost of $62,000.00 to the church. Because they chose to invest their funds with TPF almost 10 years ago, LSPC could join the new water system without having to borrow money or place additional strain on the small church's budget. Pastor Wayne Urbanowski states that "We are so grateful to TPF for providing the stewardship and growth that has allowed us to maximize the benefits of the funds we have invested."

Stories like this inspire both the TPF staff and board to focus on helping our partners prepare for the unexpected, so they can continue to impact the lives of others. As a TPF partner, you can expect:

- Aligned Purpose
TPF's purpose is to expand and enable mission. We strive each day to fulfill this purpose by working closely with our partners to maximize their support for each of their service programs and missions.
- Low-Cost, High Quality Investment Services
We underwrite a portion of our operating costs with income from TPF's own endowment fund. The portion that is charged to our pooled funds averages between .05% and .07% annually.
- Dedicated Service
An experienced administrator is assigned to manage each of our partners' accounts.
- Transparent Account Access
TPF provides you with a login and PIN to access account information 24 hours a day, seven days a week via our website.

We at TPF and ECO remain dedicated to helping you enable and expand mission no matter what might befall your church. You can visit www.tpf.org to learn more about TPF or call 800-955-1355 to visit with one of our Relationship Managers.
