

GUATEMALA

2024 SUMMER MISSION MENTORSHIP

Misión Hispana in Puerto San José, Escuintla, Guatemala

What to Expect

We will have outreach and evangelism through the Hope Center/Church in our town's garbage dump, house visits in our community, and sports ministry through the hosting of our town's triathlon team. We will also come up with new, creative ways to make the Gospel and relationship with Jesus exciting! Lastly, for those interested in medical missions or who have medical experience, training first responders first aid, CPR, and water rescue.

Qualities We are Looking For

A servant heart and attitude, enjoys working with kids/youth, a willingness to learn, flexibility, and a desire to share the love of Christ!

Anticipated Cost

$5,000

Mentors: Paul and Thania Heier and Becca Bowers

(Top) Founders of Misión Hispana, Paul and Thania have been serving as missionaries for 19 years in Central America. Thania has over two decades worth of experience working with people groups throughout Central America, and Paul has dedicated the last 20 years to mentoring young men and women from all different walks in what the Bible teaches.

(Bottom) Becca Bowers has served full time as Misión Hispana's Director of Short Term Missions, Education, and Worship for the past two years. Among her duties at MH, one is she works closely with all short term missions teams, interns, and donors, planning their times in Guatemala and helping them navigate their experience with Misión Hispana.
