

2024 SUMMER MISSION MENTORSHIP

House Of Peace Ministry in Kake, Alaska

What to Expect

Helping manage the newly started the community food pantry and café, engage with the people coming into the House of Peace with the gospel, help and support Kake Memorial Presbyterian Church's ministries including our weekly "Peace of Kake" lunch program, and Youth café for the teenagers in town. Prepare to help with worship, including both leading worship and preaching, and meeting with the local people daily and sharing the gospel to them.

Qualities We are Looking For

Willingness to learn and respect the new culture, submission in the direction of the mentor and flexibility working with other intern(s) including "the Nations" group. We would need no distraction in dating during the internship period, and for you to faithfully serve in our ministry opportunities including "House of Peace" and "Peace of Kake" ministries. We want you to hold a love for God's creation and being outdoors in order to explore the island with others. Lastly, we need you to have faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, and to be willing to to proclaim the good news!

Anticipated Cost

$6,000

Mentor: Rev. Joey Chang

Joey Chang has been working and living among the Tlingit native people for the past 13 years, in a remote island in Southeast Alaska. He started the weekly lunch program for the community called "Peace of Kake," which shares meals, the Word, and prayers. To reach out to the next generation, he also started a weekly Youth Café for the teenagers, and Good News Club for the children. He's also experienced in working with those who are dealing with depression and addiction.
