

2024 SUMMER MISSION MENTORSHIP

Church Planting in Edinburgh, Scotland

What to Expect

Helping to lead short term missions' teams, leading them in projects, and outreach events; also helping to guide them throughout the city. Community service and evangelism opportunities. There will be opportunities to get involved in local outreaches, such as a food kitchen, or a soul food, which gives the opportunities to serve and engage with those experiencing homelessness. There will be ample opportunity for relational evangelism through community get togethers and informal meet-ups. Off the back of this relational evangelism there should be opportunities to lead bible studies with non-Christians in 1:1 and group environments.

Qualities We are Looking For

Teachability, Humility, and Self Direction

Anticipated Cost

$5,000

Mentors: Caleb and Summer Shocklie

Caleb and his wife Summer are Church Planters with 6 years of serving and leading in church plants in various roles in both Phoenix, Arizona and in Edinburgh, Scotland. They hope you will experience what it is like do ministry in a western post Christian context, and to experience the challenge of ministry in Scotland but also the reward of seeing breakthrough in a hard place to make disciples.
